Why not wait until you have a class before taking this workshop?
For the same reason you practice a fire drill
before a fire:

1. If you get an assignment on short notice, you will have so much to do. This workshop enables you to prepare more efficiently for the crucial first weeks.
2. So you can use the rehearsal strategy while you are a TTOC: see bit.ly/TOCpage1
3. So you can speak confidently about how you will begin during interviews
